NEW PRESIDENT TED KATZ STARTS HIS YEAR!!!

Ted Katz started his first Club Assembly meeting of his year as President of the Carnegie-Collier Rotary Club on time and ended it without running overtime. He announced that his first Board Meeting will be held at his house (171 Boxfield Road, Pgh., PA 15241) at 6 PM on Monday, July 12th. If you don't know, the following people should attend: President Ted, Past President Diane, Vice President Kay Phanse, Secretary Patty John, Treasurer John Mendenhall, Board Members finishing the 2nd of their two years in office Sue Kelly and Rich Meyer, and new Board Members Rick Iorio, Ed LaBruna, and Jeff Tindall who are starting the first of their 2 years in office. If you can't make the meeting please let Ted know at work (412-279-4616), at home (412-835-1142) or by e-mail at ted15241@msn.com One of the main areas for discussion at this meeting will be Ted's budget for the 2010-11 Rotary Year so if you wish to ask for any special budget requests please let Ted know and attend the meeting. SEE YOU THERE!

Former Rotary Youth Exchange Student, Rafaele Moliero from Brazil (2000-2001) who lasted visited the club in December, 2007 will be returning to visit her host family, Ruth Miley and the girls for Ruth's 50th birthday and will be visiting the Club while she is here. For the last 2 ½ years Rafa has been working in a lab in the area of Immunology, Biochemistry, and Hormones. She has asked me if any member of the Club is a biochemist, knows a biochemist, or works in a lab testing blood. She would love to talk to anyone who meets this description while she is here. Please check your contacts and let John Mendenhall know so that he can get the name and e-mail address to Rafa. Rafa had a great year as our Exchange student and has been back to visit the Mileys and the Club a number of times since she left. We look forward to seeing her at the end of the month.
