Welcome New Members to Carnegie-Collier Rotary

On Monday, the Board of Directors accepted the membership applications of two new members. The first is Robert J. Schuler. He is a Collier Township Commissioner and has a classification of Government/Commissioner. Bob is sponsored by Cindi Hewitt although many in the Club know Bob already. He recently spoke to us about the Charity Golf Outing they had at Nevillewood to support the fire departments that serve the township. Our second new member is Jeremy L. Guthrie who is the Branch Manager for PNC Bank in Carnegie. Jeremy is sponsored by Diane Karcz. The information for both members (addresses etc.) will be provided in new inserts to your Directory very soon. They will also show up on the back of the Sprocket soon also. Please look for them as greeters soon and be sure to introduce yourself and make them feel welcome. Both will be inducted as a future meeting. Congratulations and Welcome!!!

Rich Meyer introduced our program today. Chris Engler, in the Marketing Department of the Pittsburgh Business Times newspaper which comes out weekly and has multiple departments and stories on business and businesses in the western PA area. Chris went over the sections of the paper and the various areas of coverage including national business news, industry news, Pittsburgh's top jobs, events planned in the area, leaders in business, and many many more useful reports, lists, and stories to help businesses know what is happening. He also provided a copy of the latest Pittsburgh Business Times for us to take and read to see if it is something that can help each of us in our work. Thanks Rich and Chris for in informative presentation.

Also, Gordon's son Dustin is involved with the SPAS Production Company, a group of college age kids who are former High School Musical veterans who never lost the bug to participate, who are putting on the musical "Footloose" at the Colonial Theatre in Massey Hall, Robert Morris University on August 7, 8, & 9 at 7:30 PM. The cost is only $7.00 and should be a great time!!!
